The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 14, to Tuesday September 17, 1751.

Naples, Auguſt 24.

LAST Week, as the Prince of Aragona was attending the King on Horſeback at the Villa of Capo di Monte, he had the Misfortune to fall from his Horſe, and to break one of his Arms. On the 16th Inſtant their Majeſties, attended by their Retinue, croſſed the Sea in two half Gallies to the Iſland of Procida, in order to take the Diverſion of Shooting; but, on Account of the high Sea, they could not Return till the next Day, having ſhot upwards of 100 Pheaſants. On the 18th the King inveſted, with the uſual publick Formalities, the Prince of Tarſia with the Title of Grandee of Spain; on which Occaſion that Prince entertained the Chiefs of the Court, and the Gentry of this City with a Ball on Saturday laſt. On the 19th the Prince of Moneſtarolo, Miniſter from the King of Sardinia to this Court, gave a great Serenade and a Ball to the Foreign Miniſters, the Chief Officers of the Court, the Nobility and Military Officers, on Account of the Birth of the Prince of Piemont; on which Occaſion all Sorts of Refreſhments were diſtributed in a moſt ſplendid Manner. On the 21ſt the King confirmed M. Calenzano in the Charge of Eletto del Popolo for a Year longer. The ſame Day the Duke of St. Arpino Sanee, was, by expreſs Orders from the King, confined to the Caſtle of Iſchia, it is thought, on Account of his looſe Way of Life, after a Repremand he had received on the Part of the Court.

Rome, Aug. 31. The Pope taking Compaſſion of the Inhabitants of divers Villages in Umbria, who, on Account of the Ruins occaſioned by the late Earthquake in that Province, are expoſed to the Inclemency of the Weather, by being obliged to lie in the open Fields, has ſent large Sums of Money there, in order that they may be ſupplied with Neceſſaries till the Governours of the reſpective Villages can provide them with Habitations, and other Conveniencies. On the 19th Inſtant, by the Arrival of a Felucca from Palermo, we had the diſagreeable News, that on the 3d Inſtant they felt a terrible Shock of an Earthquake, which occaſioned great Damages. On the 20th Cardinal Portocarrero had a long Audience of the Pope, and afterwards a Conference with the Secretary of State, relating to the Affairs of his Court. On the 24th the Duke de Nivernois, the French Ambaſſadour, had an Audience of the Pope, to requeſt of him one of his Gallies to conduct his Siſter-in-Law to Marſeilles, which the Pope immediately granted, and Orders were given to M. Bufre, Commodore of the Gallies, to repair to Civita-Vecchia, to conduct that Lady to France.

Turin, Sept. 2. Our laſt Letters from Savoy aſſure us, that the Flames begin to iſſue very faſt from the Opening that happened about a Month ago in the Rock of Plainejou, in the Province of Faucigny, and that the ſame had already ſo far damaged the Towns of Paſſi and Cervos, ſituate under the ſame, that the Inhabitants thereof had been obliged to abandon them, and to remove elſewhere with their Effects.

Parma, Sept. 2. The Duke our Sovereign having been informed that ſeveral private Perſons, not only in this City, but in divers other Places of this Dutchy, have ſo far taken Advantage of the Shortneſs of our Crops of Corn this Year, as to buy up all they poſſibly could, and to retail it out at an exceſſive high Price, has cauſed an Ordonnance to be publiſhed, forbidding, upon Pain of Confiſcation, all Perſons whatſoever, who have more Corn by them than is ſufficient to ſupport themſelves and their Families, not to diſpoſe of the ſame for the Future at an higher Price than the Commiſſaries who are to be appointed for that Purpoſe ſhall fix upon it.

Florence, Sept. 3. On the 28th paſt General Delon, Miniſter from the King of Poland to the King of the Two Sicilies, arrived here from Naples, on his Way to Dreſden. By the laſt Accounts from Lombardy, the Prince and Princeſs of Modena ſet out on the 25th paſt from Modena to Maſſa; and on the 28th they were followed by the Duke, to view the new Road, and to be preſent at the Works that are making at the new Port of Lavenza. The Pirates from Barbary have lately taken, on the Coaſt of Tuſcany, ſeveral Neapolitan and Genoeſe Trading Veſſels, loaden with Corn, &c. to the great Prejudice and Interruption of the Commerce of Leghorne.

Milan, Sept. 3. Orders are ſent to the Governors of the ſeveral Towns of this Dutchy, and that of Mantua, to cauſe all Perſons, of both Sexes, who are capable of working, to be taken taken out of all the Houſes of Correction, and ſent, under an Eſcort, into Hungary, in order to their being employed in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures that are going to be eſtabliſhed in that Kingdom.

Prague, Sept. 8. Field Marſhal Prince Lobkowitz is already returned hither from the Camp at Colin; and 'tis ſaid that a very bad Sickneſs amongſt the Troops, occaſioned by the almoſt continual Rains they have had ever ſince the Beginning of this Month, will oblige them to go into Quarters ſooner than was expected.

Berlin, Sept. 10. The King has conferred on the Count de Borck, heretofore Major of the Regiment of Horſe of Stille, the Poſt of Governor of Prince Frederick William, eldeſt Son of the Prince of Pruſſia.

Aix-la-Chapelle, Sept. 12. The Margrave of Baden-Dourlach, who accompanied his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange to this Place, ſet out from hence Yeſterday for his own Territories. We learn from Spa, that Prince Lichtenſtein, Field Marſhal of their Imperial Majeſties Armies, is arrived there with the Princeſs his Spouſe, in order to drink the Waters.

Bruſſels, Sept. 13. Prince Charles of Lorrain, Governor-General of theſe Provinces, is ſhortly expected here; and, 'tis aſſured, that, ſoon after his Return, ſeveral important Affairs will be brought on the Carpet. On Monday laſt the Marquis de Botta Adorno went from hence to Mechlin, and reviewed the Body of Cannoniers in Garriſon in that City; after which he viſited the Foundery, and ſaw all the Cannon there, and appeared greatly pleaſed with the good Condition in which he found every Thing. They have made great Progreſs in the Canal which is digging from this City to Louvain, notwithſtanding the almoſt continual Rains that have lately fallen, and 'tis now believed that it will be made compleatly navigable by the End of next Summer. We are informed by our laſt Letters from Picardy, that a terrible Fire had broke out at Peronne, a conſiderable Town in that Province, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that upwards of 40 Houſes were ſoon reduced to Aſhes.

Cologn, Sept. 14. They have lately raiſed here and in this Neighbourhood, a great Number of Recruits for the Imperial Regiments in Garriſon at Luxembourg.

Harlem, Sept. 15. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange has been pleaſed to approve of the Nomination of Meſſ. Heſhuyſen, Dyk, Schuylemburch and Guldenwagen, for Burgomaſters of this City. On Sunday laſt we received Advice, that a three Maſt Ship, named the St. Paul, bound from Bourdeaux to Hambourg, laden chiefly with Coffee and Sugar, had foundered off Noordwyk; but that the Crew, conſiſting of 14 Men, had found Means to ſave themſelves, except four, who had the Misfortune to be drowned.

Duſſeldorp, Sept. 17. Laſt Wedneſday Night we received Advice, that the Dutcheſs, Widow of the late Duke Ferdinand of Bavaria, who was Brother to the Elector of Cologn, and to the Biſhop and Prince of Liege, died on the Sunday before at the Caſtle of Ahauſs, in the 60th Year of her Age; and that her Corps had been embalmed and depoſited in the Pariſh Church till the Return of a Courier, who was diſpatched to the Court of Munich with an Account of her Death.

Hambourg, Sept. 16. The Wind has blown ſo exceſſive hard for theſe five Days paſt from the Northweſt, that the River Elbe has greatly overflown its Banks, and laid all the lower Part of this City entirely under Water; by which Means ſeveral large Parcels of valuable Goods, that could not be removed in Time, were very much damaged. The Force of the Water was ſo very great, that in moſt of the neighbouring Villages ſeveral Perſons, and a great Number of Cattle, were drowned.

Hague, Sept. 21. On Sunday next this Court goes out of Mourning for his late Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange has juſt received an Expreſs from Aix-la-Chapelle, by which we learn, that his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange continued in good Health at that Place.

Whitehall, September 17.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint Ruvigny De Coſne, Eſq; to be Secretary to his Majeſty's Extraordinary Embaſſy to the moſt Chriſtian King.

And alſo to appoint Charles Townſhend, Eſq; to be Secretary to his Majeſty's Extraordinary Embaſſy to the Catholick King.

April 19, 1751.
